

Dan Locke

Dan is living in Toronto, Ontario, but spent his youth in Winnipeg. He is a graduate student who has been playing the bagpipes for 13 years. Dan joined PRPPB in 2008, having played previously with Lord Selkirk Boys Pipe Band, St. Andrew's Society of Winnipeg Pipe Band, Winnipeg Celtic Pipe Band, Ceremonial Guard Pipes and Drums and 48th Highlanders Pipes and Drums. Dan received early tuition from Pipe Major Robert Fraser and Pipe Major Bob Stankey, and when attending University, he received tuition from Liz Drury from The Halifax Citadel Pipe Band. His piping career highlights to date is winning the 2010 North American Championship with PRPPB and representing Canada as a piper with the Canadian Forces.