

Stephen Doris

Stephen currently lives in Mississauga, Ontario, with his wife Sharon and daughter Olivia. He is originally from Cookstown, Co. Tyrone, Northern Ireland. Stephen has 25 years experience as a piper and previously played with Clonoe Independent Pipe Band, McNaughton's / Robert Wiseman Diaries Vale of Atholl Pipe Band, 78th Fraser Highlanders and Australia Highlanders, joining PRPPB in 2010. He received instruction from Ian Duncan and Andy Renwick and has benefited from the 'words of wisdom' the late Gordon Duncan had to offer. As a band member, Stephen contributed to many awards being won, including The North American Championship with the SL78th Fraser's and achieving 4th overall in the World Pipe Band Championship in Scotland 2007. He is also featured on a number of CDs namely; Live in Frankfurt, "Back to the Future" Pre-Worlds Concert 2006, both with the Vale of Atholl and Without Fear 2008 with Australia Highlanders. Stephen has penned tunes including 'The Casual Spew' and